BEWARE OF SCAM ARTISTS AND IDENTITY THEFT

The Superior Court of Solano County received information from a Solano County citizen that she was contacted by a person who claimed there was an arrest warrant for her because of unpaid tickets. The person told her to pay $380 dollars via a PayPal account or pre-paid debit card and that if she refused the police would come to her house.

The citizen complied because the caller had her social security number, knew her address and other personal information and she was scared.

This Public Notice is to advise all citizens that the Superior Court of Solano County staff do not call citizens regarding outstanding warrants. Court staff do not demand payment through PayPal or pre-paid debit cards.

Valuable information regarding identify theft and how to protect yourself can be found on a website created by the Federal Trade Commission at www.ftc.gov/bcp/edu/microsites/idtheft/.

If you think your identity has been compromised, contact your local police agency and your credit card companies. Also, you can check your credit status with the three major credit reporting companies: Experian 888-397-3742; TransUnion 888-909-8872; Equifax 800-525-6285.
