

The City of Fairfield does not operate any public libraries and therefore is not in the position to comment on each finding of the report.