EMPLOYEE RECEIVES AWARD

The Superior Court of California, County of Solano is pleased to announce that Ms. Frances Ho is the 2013 recipient of the Child Abuse Prevention Award for Judicial Advocate of the Year, given by the Child Abuse Prevention Council and Children's Network of Solano County.

The mission of the Children's Network of Solano County is to improve the lives of children in Solano County through education, advocacy, coordination of community services and community-based collaboratives. The Child Abuse Prevention Council was established in March 1998, by the Solano County Board of Supervisors.

The Advocate of the Year award honors the individual or organization that has been most consistent and effective advocate for the well-being of children and families in Solano County.

Ms. Ho said, "It takes many of us to provide the services that victims and their families need. I work with many advocates that provide much needed assistance in this county and I am grateful to be a part of the collaborative effort. I thank the Child Abuse Prevention Council for this award and share it with my colleagues."

Ms. Ho is the Domestic Violence Attorney for the Solano Superior Court. She has worked for the Court in the Solano Legal Access Center (SLAC) for the past five years.

The award was presented to Ms. Ho on May 7, 2013, in the Solano County Board of Supervisors chambers.
