c. DEFERMENT OR WAIVER OF COURT INVESTIGATOR FEES

Upon application by a guardian or proposed guardian, a custodial parent, or a ward or proposed ward, the court may defer or waive a portion or all of the assessed court investigator fees if the court finds that ordering payment of the assessed fees would constitute a hardship for the ward or the ward's estate pursuant to Probate Code section 1513.1. The court may also defer fees pursuant to Probate Code section 2628. There shall be a rebuttable presumption that the assessed court investigator fees constitute a hardship on a ward or proposed ward if the proposed guardian qualifies for a fee waiver under Government Code section 68630 et seq.

The court will ordinarily require a bond for a temporary guardian of the estate. Unless the bond requirement is waived by the court, letters of temporary guardianship shall not issue until the temporary guardian has filed the requisite proof of bond per Probate Code section 2251.

(Subd (b) adopted effective July 1, 2009.)

15.7 EX PARTE APPLICATIONS FOR TEMPORARY GUARDIANSHIP OR OTHER TEMPORARY ORDERS

a. EX PARTE APPLICATIONS GENERALLY

Ex parte applications are extraordinary remedies. Except as set forth in an individual rule, ex parte applications for a temporary guardianship of either the estate or the person, or for temporary orders pertaining to an existing guardianship, are appropriate only where the applicant makes a showing per California Rules of Court, rule 7.1012 that an exception to the notice requirements is necessary to protect the ward or the proposed ward or his or her estate from immediate and substantial harm.

(Subd (a) adopted effective July 1, 2009.)

b. GUIDELINES FOR EX PARTE APPLICATIONS

Unless the petitioner makes a showing of immediate and substantial harm or other good cause for an ex parte granting of a temporary guardianship or other orders as set forth in California Rules of Court, rule 7.1012, the court ordinarily will not entertain an ex parte application for appointment of a temporary guardian or for other temporary orders, even where all those entitled to notice have joined in the petition. In cases where the court determines that immediate appointment of a temporary guardian is necessary, said appointment shall be governed by the provisions of Probate Code section 2250.

(Subd (b) adopted effective July 1, 2009.)

c. FORMS TO BE FILED FOR EX PARTE APPLICATIONS

In addition to the Judicial Council and local forms required for temporary and general guardianships, a petitioner seeking an ex parte order appointing a temporary guardian or seeking temporary orders in an existing guardianship shall be required to file an Ex Parte Application for Temporary Guardianship or Other Orders (Solano County Local Form no. 3710).

(Subd (c) adopted effective July 1, 2009.)

d. EX PARTE NOTICE REQUIREMENTS

(1) Before submitting an ex parte application for the court's consideration, the applicant shall comply with the procedures in Probate Code section 1051, California Rules of Court, rule 7.55, and all applicable local rules. Unless otherwise stated in the Solano County Local Rules, the applicant must comply with all requirements for a declaration setting forth that NOTICE of the ex parte request has been given to all required persons or the reason notice has not been given. At the time of submission of the application, a completed Declaration Re Notice Upon Ex Parte Application for Orders – Guardianships (Solano County Local Form no. 3710-G) or a declaration in substantial compliance therewith, shall accompany all applications for ex parte orders and shall be filed before the ex parte hearing. The moving party shall make available a copy of the filed Declaration Re Notice Upon Ex Parte Application for Orders to the judicial officer, and to the opposing party or attorney if one appears, at the time of the ex parte hearing, or the ex parte hearing may be ordered rescheduled.

(Subd (1) adopted effective July 1, 2009.)

(2) Unless otherwise ordered by the court, notice of the ex parte application for temporary orders shall be given by the petitioner to all those who are entitled to notice per Probate Code section 1511 and 1542. The notice shall include the date, time, and place the request will be made, a summary of the relief requested, and the facts upon which the request will be made. In its discretion, the court may require that the entire moving papers package be served in a prescribed manner upon another party, interested person, or his or her attorney, at a specified time before the ex parte hearing. Notice may be excused pursuant to these rules.

(Subd (2) adopted effective July 1, 2009.)

(Subd (d) adopted effective July 1, 2009.)

e. PROCEDURE FOR EX PARTE APPLICATIONS

(1) To determine whether, if taken as true, the moving papers demonstrate immediate and substantial harm or otherwise set forth good cause for granting a temporary emergency order, the assigned judicial officer shall consider the requesting party's papers and, in his or her discretion, determine that the matter should be addressed in an ex parte hearing, or with an order shortening time for notice or for a hearing, or with a regularly set petition. All ex parte applications must be submitted for screening by 1:30 p.m. for consideration on that same court day. Presenting the ex parte motion for this screening process does not in and of itself constitute submission of the motion for the court's consideration per Solano County Local Rules, rule 15.7 (d), above.

(Subd (1) adopted effective July 1, 2009.)

(2) Before a hearing on an ex parte application may take place, the moving party shall present proof (such as a receipt) that the additional ex parte filing fees have been paid or shall provide proof that the party has a current fee waiver on file in the guardianship case. Unless the moving party has a valid and current fee waiver on file, failure to present proof of payment of the ex parte fees will result in the hearing being taken off calendar,

(Subd (2) adopted effective July 1, 2009.)

(3) At the ex parte hearing, the party requesting ex parte orders must inform the judicial officer whether the opposing party is represented by counsel or is unrepresented. Per California Rules of Court, rule 7.55, the party requesting ex parte orders must also disclose whether special notice has been requested and if so, whether special notice has been given to or waived by the person who requested it.

This shall include, but is not limited to, any adoption, juvenile court, marriage dissolution, domestic relations, or other similar proceeding affecting the ward or proposed ward in any jurisdiction, including other counties, states, or foreign countries.

(Subd (a) adopted effective July 1, 2009.)

b. OBJECTIONS TO THE APPOINTMENT OF GUARDIAN

A person objecting to the appointment of a temporary or general guardian of the person and/or estate shall file an Objection to Appointment of Guardian (Solano County Local Form no. 3455) as far in advance as possible of the appropriate guardianship hearing date. The objection shall be served on all parties entitled to notice per Probate Code sections 1511 and 1542 as well as the Court Investigators Office. A proof of service showing service on each individual shall be filed with the court. If filing and service of the objection is not possible prior to the hearing date, the objecting party shall appear at the hearing either personally or through counsel to state their objection(s) on the record; however, unless otherwise ordered by the court, appearance at the hearing does not excuse the objecting party from filing his or her Objection to Appointment of Guardian and complying with the service requirements in this rule.

(Subd (b) adopted effective July 1, 2009.)

c. NOMINATION OF ALTERNATE GUARDIAN

A person's nomination of an alternate guardian for a proposed ward in an Objection to Appointment of Guardian (Solano County Local Form no. 3455) shall not be considered unless and until a petition naming the alternate proposed guardian is filed and the alternate proposed guardian indicates in writing that he or she consents to the nomination.
