ADULT DRUG COURT TO HOLD GRADUATION

The Adult Drug Court is pleased to announce the celebration of its newest graduates. On June 15, 2015, the Adult Drug Court programs in Fairfield and Vallejo will hold a graduation ceremony to recognize participants who have successfully completed this rigorous program.

On any given day of the week, a participant in Adult Drug Court could be required to attend treatment, drug test, attend a recovery support meeting like Alcoholics Anonymous, and meet with his/her case manager, all while maintaining other obligations, like work or parenting. Participation in Drug Court is not the easier path but it promises to be life changing. As one of our potential graduates has stated, "My worse day sober is still better than my best day high."

Solano Superior Court Press Release

Drug Courts are a critical component of criminal justice reform, designed to address the underlying causes of criminal behavior by focusing on treatment rather than punishment.

As stated by the Honorable Wendy G. Getty, "This drug court graduation represents achievement of sobriety and stability for the graduates, and our community's opportunity to break the generational cycle of substance abuse, violence and criminality. It means better opportunities for the graduates, their families and their children. We are especially proud of this graduation because at a time when other county's drug courts are struggling due to lack of participation following Proposition 47, through the proactive collaboration of our Solano County drug court justice participants not only have we increased participation but we will have our largest graduating class to date. The court is grateful for the collaboration and contribution of our criminal justice partners."

The Honorable Wendy G. Getty and the Honorable Tim P. Kam will preside over the ceremony. The public is invited to attend the ceremony to be held on June 15, 2015 at 3:00 pm in the Law and Justice Center in Fairfield.
